

To Whom It May Concern

I am writing this letter of recommendation on behalf of Surjana Joshi, whom I had the role of teaching during her time at Deerwalk Institute of Technology. Additionally, I also had the authority of working closely with her during her internship period, where I served as the project manager for the project she was involved in. I am thrilled to recommend Surjana based on her remarkable abilities, dedication, and contributions.

During her time as my student, Surjana persistently expressed her enthusiasm towards academics and a keen interest in the computer science field. She possesses an impressive ability to understand complex concepts and apply them effectively. Her intellectual curiosity enabled her to seek out opportunities to deepen her understanding of related areas of interest.

As Surjana's project manager during her internship, I was able to witness her work ethic and problem-solving skills firsthand. She continuously delivered good results and demonstrated a remarkable ability to navigate challenges and meet project objectives. Surjana displayed an innate ability to think critically, analyze problems and come up with innovative solutions, making her a valuable member of the team.

Moreover, Surjana exhibited proficient communication and interpersonal skills, fostering positive relationships with her colleagues. She effectively collaborated with team members, demonstrating adaptability and a willingness to contribute to the collective success of the project. Her strong organizational abilities and attention to detail ensured the timely completion of tasks and the achievement of project milestones.

Based on Surjana's academic performance, work ethic, and interpersonal skills, I have no doubt that she will thrive in any future endeavors. Her dedication and commitment to excellence make her a notable candidate for pursuing a degree in Data Science.

I wholeheartedly recommend Surjana without reservation, confident that she will make excellent contributions and achieve success. Should you require any further information or have specific inquiries, please do not hesitate to contact me. Thank you for considering my recommendation of Surjana's abilities and potential.
